

WHAT TYPE OF SCIENTIST ARE YOU? RESULTS SHEET

Most frequent	Type of scientist	Standing on the shoulders of...
1	Pattern-seeker 	 Santorio Santorio He used pattern-seeking when he invented the first way to measure a person's pulse.
2	Problem-solver 	 John Dunlop He used problem-solving when he invented the pneumatic air-filled bicycle tyre.
3	Classifier / identifier 	 David Attenborough He used identifying and classifying processes when he helped to discover new organisms.
4	Researcher 	 Charles Darwin He used secondary research when he developed his explanation of evolution.
5	Fair-testers 	 Charles Macintosh He used fair testing when he developed the waterproof coat.
6	Observer over time 	 Jane Goodall She used observation over time when she studied the behaviour of chimpanzees.
7	Accidental discoverers 	 Arthur Fry He was an accidental discoverer, when he accidentally invented the stickynote.